I. Course Description

This course provides students with an introduction to American political institutions and public policy formation. No prerequisite classes or prior knowledge are required to enroll. The course is divided into four sections. In the first section, we examine the history of the formation of American government and the theoretical explanations for the existence of government. In the second section, we examine the institutions of government, such as the U.S. Congress, the Supreme Court, and the Presidency. In the third section, we explore the behaviors associated with government and the mechanisms by which political behaviors are expressed (e.g., voting, public opinion, interest groups, political parties, etc.). In the final section, we will examine U.S. foreign, economic, and social public policy.

II. Course Goals

This course is designed to meet three primary objectives. First, I hope to stimulate your curiosity about government and politics and provide you with a life-long desire to be an informed, critical, and active citizen. Second, I hope students will develop a base level of knowledge and understanding about the institutions that form our government, the incentives of political actors, and the interactions between the two. Third, the course is designed to help students improve their analytical and critical thinking skills.

III. Course Requirements and Graded Evaluation

There are five graded requirements for this course, described below. Grades will be calculated on a non-curved typical A-F scale where,

97-100 A+	87-89 B+	77-79 C+	67-69 D+	< 60 F
93-96 A	83-86 B	73-76 C	63-66 D
90-92 A-	80-82 B-	70-72 C-	60-62 D-

Quizzes (15%) A weekly reading quiz is available on Blackboard. Quizzes must be submitted by 11:59pm on Fridays. It is not possible to make up missed quizzes. Quizzes are 10 multiple-choice questions, and open-book/open-note. You may take each quiz a maximum of twice and your highest score will be kept. When you start a quiz, you must complete it in one hour. After completing a quiz, Blackboard will tell you your score and which questions you got wrong. Correct answers to all questions will be available on Saturdays. The lowest two recorded quiz scores will be excluded from course grade calculations.

Civic Engagement Activities (CEA) (15%) Each week students will be responsible for performing and describing one civic engagement activity, with the exception of exam weeks (no CEA) and Week 1 (the Voting CEA is mandatory for all). CEAs can be completed in one of two ways. Option 1: complete the activity described on Blackboard and upload a document that describes or documents your participation. Option 2: Contribute to Democracy Squad projects via Magnify. Magnify is a public platform designed to help people solve collective problems using the tools of network and social science. Students may contribute to projects already posted in Democracy Squad, or create their own. Document and report your weekly Magnify activity and upload it to your CEA assignment. The activities are designed to help students practice applying lessons from class into real-life situations of politics and government, and to encourage responsible civic political activity. Late assignments will be accepted with a 5% per day late penalty.

Midterm Exams (20% each) There will be TWO midterm exams. Each exam will be multiple-choice, taken in a timed format on-line. The exams are open-book but, are not designed such that students should expect to look up many answers during the test. Exam questions will be based on material presented in class and in the readings and will include factual and analytical questions. The exams will be on Thursday, September 24 & Tuesday, October 27, at 10:30am. Make-up exams will only be offered under extraordinary circumstances.

Final Exam (30%) This will be a comprehensive exam covering material from the entire course. The exam will be multiple-choice, taken in a timed format on-line. The exam is open-book but, are not designed such that students should expect to look up many answers during the test. Exam questions will be based on material presented in class and in the readings and will include factual and analytical questions. The exam will be on Tuesday, December 15, 10:30am – 1:15pm. This time has been designated by the University and cannot be changed; it is the ONLY date and time to take the exam.

IV. Extra Credit, Missing and Late Work

There are NO opportunities for earning extra or bonus credit in this course. Quizzes cannot ever be made up. Civic Engagement Activities may be submitted late for a 5% per day late penalty. If you are aware that you will miss an exam you must notify the instructor at least two days prior to the due date or exam date. Make-up exams are conducted at the instructor's discretion and are granted only in extraordinary circumstances, such as a verified illness (with doctor's note) or family emergency (be prepared to provide documentation).

V. News, media, and consumption of political information

As a part of this course, it is your responsibility to be well-informed about current events and political news. Synchronous class meetings will include a segment called "What's happening in politics?" (WHIP), where students will be expected to have information about current events. It is increasingly difficult to learn about political events in a way that is even-handed and non-partisan. Here are some tips about how to consume news in a way that will provide you with the most value:

1. Consume a variety of well-respected news sources. In general, for national political news I recommend The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, The Washington Post, USA Today, and National Public Radio. Instructions for accessing subscription services through Mason are below.
2. Avoid television news altogether, except on election night.
3. Avoid getting your news exclusively from social media.
4. Avoid news sources that seek to provoke an emotional response. Try to consume news dispassionately. It's okay to have passion about politics, rights, justice, issues, etc. But try to consume news with a sense of curiosity, rather than an urge to be outraged, touched, or emotive in any sense. Train yourself to read a headline and respond with, "Huh, that's interesting," rather than automatically clicking forward, like, retweet, etc.

Instructions for access to news sources. As a Mason student, your tuition provides you access to dozens of subscription-only resources through the Mason library. These include many expensive, high quality news sources.

1. Install the Duo Mobile app on your smart phone. For complete instructions on enrolling in Mason's two-factor authentication service (2FA) see this.
2. Sign up for your own New York Times and Financial Times accounts using the Mason libraries. See <http://infoguides.gmu.edu/politics/news> for instructions.
3. Access The Chronicle of Higher Ed and The Economist through the links given here, as they route you through the Libraries' proxy server.
4. Access many national and local newspapers (including the Wall Street Journal and Washington Post) through the Factiva News Pages.
5. Podcasts are also an excellent way to stay abreast of the news. Many podcasts also have written blog sites. I recommend the following politics and news themed podcasts, which you can find on iTunes, or your favorite podcast service:

FiveThirtyEight Politics	The Ezra Klein Show
Vox, The Weeds	5 on 45, Brookings
NPR, Up First	Mischiefs of Faction
NPR, Politics Podcast	Slate, Political Gabfest
The Economist Radio	NYT, The Daily

Political Research Digest, The Niskanen Center

VI. Resources for Students

College can be a stressful experience. It is normal to sometimes feel overwhelmed, out of place, or, insecure. Self-care strategies are important for maintaining your physical, emotional, and academic health. Developing self-awareness about stress, anxiety, or health issues is an important part of your development and success as a student. The following campus resources are available to you to help you learn to manage the complexities of your college:

Center for Academic Advising, Retention, and Transitions
Compliance, Diversity, and Ethics \(including sexual misconduct and harassment; Title IX\)
Counseling and Psychological Services
Covid-19 Information Page from GMU

Learning Services
Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, and Questioning Resources

Mathematics Tutoring Center
Military Alliance Program
Office of Diversity, Inclusion, and Multicultural Education
Online Learning Services
Safe Return to Campus Plan
Student Conduct
Student Emergency Assistance Funding
Student Health Services
University Career Services
University Life
University Writing Center

VII. Class Policies

- A. Class Attendance and Participation. Learning is an active, rather than passive, exercise. To succeed in this class, complete all the activities each week: readings, watching lessons, attending synchronous sessions, quizzes, and activities. Attendance and participation are not credited for points, but students who do not participate may struggle to perform well on graded assessments.
- B. Readings. As is the case with attendance, keeping pace with the reading is essential to succeeding in this class. It is your responsibility to obtain copies of the readings prior to the date we will discuss them in class. I will do everything I can to make this task easier for you. You will be much more successful in this course if you complete the assigned readings and take notes on them.
- C. Technology. This is a Distance Learning (DL) class. Students must have a laptop or desktop computer and a high-speed internet connection to adequately participate in all aspects of the course. If you have difficulty obtaining adequate technology, or require training for using technology in the course, please contact the instructor. When watching lectures or attending synchronous meeting, do so from a quiet space, and eliminate distractions (electronic and otherwise) from your environment.

- D. Cheating, Plagiarism, and Academic Integrity. Students in this course will be expected to comply with the George Mason University Honor Code (see <https://oai.gmu.edu/mason-honor-code/>). There are three simple guidelines to follow with respect to academic integrity: (1) all work you submit must be your own; (2) when using the work or ideas of others, including fellow students, give full credit through accurate citations; and (3) if you are uncertain about the expectations for any assignment, ask for clarification. Any student engaged in any academic misconduct will receive an F on the offending exam or assignment. Egregious violations will result in an F grade for the course and will be reported to the appropriate Dean's office. These violations include cheating on an exam, using someone else's work as your own, and plagiarizing the written word. Plagiarism (using someone else's words or ideas without providing credit or citation) is a serious offense. If you have any questions at all about what constitutes cheating, plagiarism, or academic misconduct, please ask the instructor.
- E. Students with Disabilities. If you are a student with a disability and you need academic accommodations, please contact the instructor and contact Disability Services at 703.993.2474 or ods.gmu.edu. All academic accommodations must be arranged through that office.
- F. Diversity is a value. George Mason University values diversity in its learning, research, and civic activities. All members of the Mason community are asked to show respect to one another at all times. The learning environment in this class respects a wide array of viewpoints, and students of all cultural, ethnic, religious, and political backgrounds are welcome. More information about Mason's policies surrounding diversity can be found at the Office of Diversity, Inclusion, and Multicultural Education \(ODIME\). Should you need accommodations related to observing a religious holiday, please contact the instructor. For your reference, a list of major religious holidays can be found here. It is students' responsibility to communicate with the instructor if religious observations conflict with course requirements.
- G. Student Privacy. The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) grants students continuous access to educational records upon their request, allows students to amend their record if errors are found, and restricts how and when educational records can be disclosed. Your instructor will not release information about your academic record in this course to anyone without the student's permission. More information about FERPA is here.
- H. Email. Mason uses only Mason e-mail accounts to communicate with enrolled students. Students must activate their Mason e-mail account, use it to communicate with their department and other administrative units, and check it regularly for important university information including messages related to this class. Email etiquette: An email is a professional correspondence; do not write it as if it is a text message, snap, tweet, or IM.

Always use a salutation and sign your name. Consider creating a signature that automatically inserts your name and basic contact information at the bottom of your emails. Use proper punctuation and grammar.

I. Dropping or withdrawing.

August 31	Last day to add
September 8	Last day to drop (no tuition penalty)
Sept. 9 – 15	Drop with 50% tuition liability
Sept. 16 – 28	Drop with 100% tuition liability
Sept. 29 – Oct. 28	Selective Withdraw opportunity (results in “W” grade)

After October 28 there are no options for withdrawing from the course. If you have concerns about your performance in the course, or you find yourself unable to perform for any reason, you should discuss your concerns with your teaching assistant, professor, advisor, and Assistant Dean (in that order). Students seeking to drop or withdrawal are responsible for doing so on their own in Patriot Web. If you need help or advice, please see your academic advisor (gvip@gmu.edu--Government and International Politics majors, or puad@gmu.edu--Public Administration majors).

VIII. Course Materials

There is one primary textbook for this course: The Logic of American Politics, 9th ed. In addition, we will read ONE chapter (ch. 15) of American Democracy in Context, during the last week of the course where we will discuss public policy. These two books come from the same publisher, Sage, and they can be purchased (eBook or hardcopy) as a bundle. Use the ISBN links below to acquire these materials through the Mason bookstore.

Prior to August 24, materials can be purchased from Mason Bookstore online. After school begins, the bookstore will be physically open, but limiting the number of customers in the store at any one time. Please order your materials from the bookstore's official website in advance of the start of classes to ensure delivery prior to classes beginning. The in-store pickup option will be available online just before school starts and students will be able to acquire their orders inside the bookstore. The bookstore will provide a full refund for all Fall 2020 textbooks through Monday, August 31. Those who drop classes will have until Tuesday, September 22, with proof of a schedule change.

IX. Course Schedule and Assignments

The following schedule follows a weekly pattern. It includes the same general activities each week:

1. Do the readings first.
2. Watch the pre-recorded short video lessons.
3. Join the synchronous meetings Tuesdays and Thursdays.
4. Complete the weekly reading quiz.
5. Complete the weekly Civic Engagement Activity (NOTE: no CEA in exam weeks).
6. Repeat.
